Tis the Season

There are 17 full-time and 3 part-time or contract employees working to meet the goals and objectives of the Chamber of Commerce and it's 6 councils throughout the year. Our staff represents more than 186 years of combined service to our members and the visitors to our city. Whether someone has been part of the team for a few months, or more than a decade, every single one takes great pride in their jobs, knows that no one person is more important than another, and understands that it takes everyone working as a team to be successful.

No matter what business you are in, you should always make time to have fun and celebrate together every once in a while. Our staff recently got together for a mini-retreat and to bowl a couple of frames. You can be awesome at your job, but rolling an 8 to 12 pound ball down a greasy lane trying to knock down 10 little wooden pins is a great way to put your ego in check. And it's a great way to laugh at yourself and your co-workers and be thankful you're healthy enough to work and play and laugh and be part of this great community.

On behalf of our staff and board of directors, we wish you the happiest of holiday seasons and a prosperous year in 2016!

Amarillo CVC Receives ConventionSouth's Annual Readers' Choice Award

The Amarillo Convention & Visitor Council, a part of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, has received a 2015 ConventionSouth Readers' Choice Award.

ConventionSouth covers the meeting and convention industry across the southern states and routinely asks its 18,000 readers to identify the best meeting facilities, hotels and convention & visitor bureaus in Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Indiana, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Puerto Rico, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia.

This is the third time the Amarillo CVC has received this recognition since the program's creation in 2001. The Amarillo Civic Center Complex has received Readers' Choice Awards from ConventionSouth in the past, too.

ConventionSouth
EXCELLENCE. ANSWERS. INSIGHT.

"As sponsors of Amarillo's Prime Service Award, we take quality service very seriously. Everything we do is with our clients and our partners in mind. So, it is nice to know that ConventionSouth readers, who are among the most influential meeting planners in the nation, think we are doing a good job," Dan Quandt, VP of the Amarillo CVC, says.

Over 180 CVBs, meeting facilities and hotels across the south received a Readers' Choice Award this year. For a complete list of winners, visit http://conventionsouth.com/making_headlines/stay-tuned-for-2015-readers-choice-award-winners/.

Editor's Corner

My favorite part of the holiday season is hearing and seeing amazing stories of generosity and just basic human kindness. With all of the negativity and violence in the world, it's nice to share something that just makes your heart glad.

Less than a month ago, people were casually enjoying their dinner at the Outback restaurant when a truck slammed into the building. As horrifying as the photos looked, it was a true miracle that no one was seriously injured in the accident. But what happened after is what makes me proud to live in Amarillo.

Within days, a local church set up a fundraising page for employees who would probably have no income going into the holiday season. (Nearly $6000 has been raised to date.) Awesome! Outback management stepped up to make sure that their employees would still be paid while the restaurant was closed for renovations. Another awesome! But the most clever move they made was not to merely hand over a check, they had their employees working to earn it by volunteering at the High Plains Food Bank. According to ABC7's website, "employees sorted almost 20,000 pounds of food and produced 16,400 meals for local families in need." What a great gesture! Awesome on all accounts!

Outback was able to re-open their doors this week, and the Chamber and Round-Up committee were on hand with the big scissors to celebrate them as a brand new member. Outback Manager, Dustin Unruh, told one more great story that came from this terrible accident. One of Outback's closest competitors (literally closest because they are right across the street) is Hoffbrau Steaks. The night of the accident, some of the Hoffbrau team had set up their back meeting room with food and drinks and invited any of the Outback staff, emergency personnel, and restaurant guests to come over and sit and eat and ease some of their stress...for free. Hoffbrau management told us they probably served and saw 50-60 people that night. Kudos to Todd and the staff at Hoffbrau for reaching out!

That's just one example we've seen this holiday season. I've also seen two different radio stations calling upon their listeners to give back and help provide tons of toys for children in need or to help organizations like CASA who serve some of the most fragile children in our community. There have been businesses putting out bins to collect food for the food bank, fill lists on angel trees or coats to share the warmth. So many employees in every industry have been giving from their own pockets to make sure no one is forgotten this Christmas. It's so nice to see our members leading the charge to help restore a little more faith in mankind. My prayer is that all of that good karma will come back ten-fold to anyone who sets aside their own needs or their own differences to help another. Here's to a great new year and seeing exciting new things in our community.

As always, tell us how we are doing. Give us your suggestions, feedback, and input. Feel free to write on our Facebook wall. Get involved. We are proud to be YOUR Chamber.
