

2024 BUSINESS DIRECTORY

TOGETHER, WE'RE POWERING GROWTH.

We consider this home. So we're big supporters of things like local development and job growth. Already our investment in renewable energy is helping lower costs. That's healthy for the economy. We buy local. We contribute tax revenue local. We support local economic growth partners. In other words, we're generating megawatts of optimism for the places where we live and work.

letter to the MEMBERS

As the President & CEO of the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, I'm excited to share with you our 2024 editions of the Amarillo Chamber Membership Directory and Relocation Guide. These can be valuable resources for you and your business. They provide information about Chamber members and their lines of service and products, as well as information about the community in which we live. Amarillo businesses produce the finest quality services and products for their customers and the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce is honored to serve as a representative of this ever-aggressive business community; one which strives for a stronger economy.

The Chamber staff, its Board of Directors, Executive Committee and hundreds of volunteers are the city's leading advocates for a vibrant business climate. The Chamber continuously strives to develop goals and objectives based on member input; utilizing these ideas to conduct and host dozens of events, which promote economic growth and an attractive quality of life. Our various councils and committees are extremely active in developing programs to help our member businesses become more successful, and we take pride in promoting business, education, tourism and the cultural arts.

Now more than ever, we ask you to look at who is in your circle. Are you supporting those businesses that support our community? As you look through our Chamber Directory, we encourage you to shop local and do business with our Chamber members. Not only do they believe in the Chamber's goals, they also support the business community through their investments and sponsorships. Doing business with other Chamber members is the best way to thank them for their continued investment and ensure that the companies of the future continue to have this level of support. Shopping local helps increase our sales tax revenue in the city and provides key community services and helps keep our overall property taxes down.

We recognize the last few years have had some additional challenges for our businesses, our city, and our country, but we are confident in the strength and resilience of Amarillo businesses and its people. We have big things planned in the coming year and are thankful for your trust and support as a member to help us achieve those goals. It takes all of us working together to carry out this common goal...to make Amarillo the best possible place to live, learn, work and play!

Sincerely,

Jason Harrison, President & CEO
Amarillo Chamber of Commerce

Dear Chamber Member,

We are excited to present our 2024 Amarillo Chamber Membership Directory and Relocation Guide. This Guide is a valuable tool for your business and provides information regarding the numerous services and products offered by our loyal Chamber members. It also illustrates our tremendous business climate and outstanding quality of life.

We're proud to highlight our Chamber's team of volunteers, councils, committees and wonderful staff members. Together they enhance the value of Chamber membership to include many Chamber functions held throughout the year. These activities provide networking opportunities that build strategic business relationships and personal friendships. By working together, members promote economic and social growth in the Panhandle.

On behalf of the Chamber Board of Directors and the Chamber staff, we are proud to present this useful guide, and we encourage you to do business with our members.

2024 amarillo chamber COUNCILS

The Amarillo Chamber of Commerce is the leading advocate for a strong, healthy area business climate and economy. Through goals and objectives set by its membership, Board of Directors, staff, and especially its many, many volunteers, the Chamber helps improve all segments of the economy by stimulating economic growth. The Chamber also helps spur the growth and improvement of cultural, social, educational and governmental services in the region. Six separate councils link together to accomplish these goals and objectives.

MEMBERSHIP COUNCIL

DUSTY DOYLE, CHAIR

A primary goal of the Chamber is to provide a platform from which its members can grow their businesses. The Membership Council assists in this goal by offering networking events. These events and other special projects offer Chamber members the opportunities to meet potential customers and clients through a variety of events and programs helping them expand their customer base.

Good Times Celebration® Barbecue Cook-Off

The Barbecue has been Chamber tradition for over 25 years. In 2021, the event was moved to the Tri-State Fairgrounds from its previous downtown home and will now happen annually the first Thursday of October at this new location. The event draws over 8,000 attendees and 110 businesses represented by 100 cooking teams. Cooking teams compete for 1st, 2nd and 3rd place honors for the best ribs, brisket and “other” meats in professional, corporate or amateur divisions. 100 volunteer judges have the chore of choosing the winners from some of the most mouthwatering food found anywhere. The Showmanship competition often sees cooking teams use extravagant themes for their costumes and booth decoration.

As with all Chamber events, the Barbecue gives sponsors a great way to publicize their business. Businesses and their employees have a chance to network with the business community in a relaxed, fun atmosphere. All businesses are encouraged to wear company logo attire to promote their organization.

This event wouldn't be possible without the generosity of every one of the sponsors and the 200+ volunteers that give of their time. The proceeds from this event support other Chamber programs and projects to keep Chamber dues low.

After Hours Networking

The Chamber holds monthly networking events at various sponsoring businesses. These events encourage members to come together and promote their business or exchange business cards over light food and drinks and are free to attend.

Membership Blitz

Chamber members volunteer to call on the newest Chamber members to welcome them to the Chamber, answer questions and to encourage them to get involved.

Round-Up Club

The Round-Up members are the official greeters of Amarillo. By appointment, the members volunteer to conduct ribbon cuttings and groundbreaking ceremonies for local businesses. On average, the RoundUp Club assists with more than 100 ceremonies and other special Chamber projects throughout a year.

Chamber Website

The Chamber's website (www.amarillo-chamber.org) provides needed services, information, and economic data to the business community. It provides relocation information, features a job bank, and the complete online directory of the Chamber's members is merely a click away. The online directory has up-to-date listings in common business categories with company location, hyperlinks to member websites and social media, maps and more. The website also features an online calendar for both Chamber and Community events.

The Chamber's website homepage includes a video tour of Amarillo highlighting all of the many reasons Amarillo is a great place to live, learn, work and play. The Community Video also features member partners' videos, logos, and links to their websites for a wide variety of products or services offered by these partners.

Members can even update their own directory listing, contact information, pay invoices and more through the Members Only portal.

Amarillo Chamber Open Golf Tournament

Typically held on the fourth Thursday in July, 288 golfers play in this annual four-person scramble tournament. Held at either Tascosa Golf Club or Ross Rogers Golf Complex, it is one of the largest one-day charity tournaments in the area. The entry fee includes the green fees, cart, golf gifts, a goody bag for each golfer, refreshments throughout the day, lunch and dinner, great door prizes and awards for the winners. Sponsorship opportunities are available for this great networking event. All the proceeds support Chamber programs.

BUSINESS COUNCIL WES WRIGHT, CHAIR

Business Council goals and objectives are geared toward enhancing the regional economy. The council creates environments which facilitate networking opportunities for businesses and their employees, and also provides information on general community factors, trade and export opportunities, a referral system for businesses seeking assistance, and help coordinate job fairs and other services to encourage a strong business community.

BusinessConnection® Tradeshow

BusinessConnection® is the area's largest business-to-business tradeshow that draws more than 4,000 business and community leaders throughout the one-day show to network and visit nearly 250 businesses in 300 booths. Held annually in May, the show also features a Tradeshow Food Court serving lunch from 20 participating restaurants to more than 500 people.

Business Excellence Awards

Outstanding companies and young professionals are recognized with Top Business, Top Emerging Business, and Top Twenty Under 40 Awards each year. The program recognizes leading companies and individuals which have shown steady growth, leadership, and strong community involvement. Nominations are accepted through May annually, and winners are selected by a committee and recognized at the Chamber's Business Excellence Awards Celebration.

GOVERNMENTAL AFFAIRS COUNCIL

ED NICHOLS, CHAIR

The Chamber has always been a guiding force in keeping State and National government officials aware of issues important to Amarillo and the region as a whole. Its stance on important issues, such as its efforts to help bring about tort reform in Texas, has helped improve the business climate. The council surveys Chamber members to identify local concerns, and host receptions and other gatherings to honor visiting state, national and foreign dignitaries when necessary.

Panhandle Days In Austin

The council hosts this event in our state's capital when the legislators are in session in odd calendar years. The biennial event sees close to 100 business and community leaders from Amarillo and other panhandle cities travel to Austin to speak of important issues affecting the region including agriculture, arts, education, healthcare, tourism, transportation and more.

DC Days In Washington

The council hosts this event in our nation's capital when the legislators are in session in even calendar years. The DC Days event in Washington DC sees 20 business and community leaders travel to speak in support of large government industries in our area like Bell and Pantex, as well as other issues affecting our region including agriculture, healthcare, and transportation.

AG & NATURAL RESOURCES COUNCIL

BRICE SHEETS, CHAIR

Amarillo was built by aggressive men and women involved in oil, gas and agricultural production. Cattle feeding, ranching, crop production and related industries help keep agriculture as the region's largest industry, annually pumping more than $4 billion into the regional economy. The Chamber Ag and Natural Resources Council works to attract new agribusiness companies to assist and enhance regional crop production, cattle feeding and other livestock production, and ag-product processing. The council supports the annual Texas Wheat Symposium and Ag Appreciation Lunch in conjunction with the annual Amarillo Farm and Ranch Show. The council puts Amarillo leaders in touch with their counterparts in surrounding communities.
