Real people = Real Video Reviews

2018
Introduction of ReviewTube: the new, trusted form of digital word of mouth.

How do you tell the real story of your business?

2017
Truth of anonymous text reviews comes into question, damaging word of mouth. Text reviews no longer trusted source of reputation.

Gaming the System. How does your business stand out?

2015
Online reviews become saturated with 5 star ratings, resulting in virtually identical high ratings for most businesses

People no longer asking people; who are you 'asking' for a business recommendation?

2007
Through the use of smartphones and mobile search capabilities, online reviews replace traditional word of mouth.

Trusted recommendations from trusted sources.

Pre-2000's:
The age of traditional word-of-mouth, where people asked people for business recommendations.
